

Quick Start Guide for students on the DILAN e-Learning Platform

1.- Introduction

Welcome!

In this document you will find the necessary information to enrol in the courses offered by the DILAN Project in <https://scicommhub.eu>.

DILAN is an Erasmus+ project that aims to provide the European scientific community with better communication skills, so that researchers can communicate their work to wider audiences.

2.- Access the Platform

Go to the URL: <https://scicommhub.eu/>.

Sign in / Log in:

- If you already have an account, enter your username and password in the login form.
- If this is your first time on the platform, you need to register using the form that appears when you click on the 'sign in' button in the top left corner of the homepage.

Once you have filled in the registration form, your new account will be ready and you will receive a welcome email in your mailbox. You can now log in to the platform.

3.- Your Profile

Access your profile from the user menu top right. Click the arrow to open up the menu.

- o Clicking the Profile link will then display other options, such as the list of your courses, any forum and blog entries and a link to edit your profile.
- o Clicking the Edit profile link will allow you to change certain information such as your timezone, add an avatar, description and, optionally, extra contact details.

4.- Get Familiar with the Homepage

Once you are logged into the platform, go to the home page and take some time to familiarize yourself with these tools:

- Top navigation bar: Provides quick access to "Home," "Dashboard" and "My Courses"
- Header: Provides important information on the development of the DILAN project and updates during its development.
- Courses: Direct access to the available courses and a short description of the courses available.
- About: Description of DILAN's objectives, as well as the project's target audiences.
- DILAN Video Testimonials: Shares video testimonials produced by researchers who have participated in the DILAN project to share their work and research. As part of the study and development carried out by DILAN, this area

5.- Enrol in a Course

- Click on the desired course. Once inside, you'll see basic information such as the course description and facilitator's name.
- If the course is open, click the "View course enrolment page" button.
